

FESTIVAL OF THE GULF

P R E S E N T S

WALLY SALIO, SOPRANO

Wally Salio, Italian soprano, winner of the international voice competitions: Maria Canals Barcellona, "Gian Battista Viotti" Vercelli, "ASLICO" Milan, Spoleto, and others, in 2004 received from the President of Italy the Art and Culture Award for Opera.

Her career includes the principal rolls in Aida, Trovatore, Ballo in Maschera, Rigoletto, Nabucco, Tosca, Suor Angelica, Tabarro, Werther under the baton of R. Chailly, O. De Fabritiis, Peter Maag, Nino Sanzogno, N. Annovazzi, and others in the major Italian and foreign countries.

She was professor at the Conservatory of Novara until 2002, and presently collaborates with F. Corelli, A. Kraus, R. Kabainvanska, E. Dara for opera study seminars. Her master classes are held in Paris, Lione State Conservatory, Vienna Musikseminar, "Brianza" Milano, "Savigliano" Turin, and Summer Opera Laboratory in Castellabate (Salerno).

More info at: www.wallysalio.com

FESTIVAL OF THE GULF

www.FestivaloftheGulf.com